Dear Jack,

Thanks so much for your letter inviting me to address the members of The Brook Club.

I doubt that I will be able to make it to New York in June but I will most certainly contact you the first time I make it up your way--probably in the fall. Perhaps we can set up a date at that time.

Best regards.

Yours,

Dear Stan:

At the request of officers and directors of The Brook, it is my pleasure to invite you to be our honored guest and the only speaker at the dinner to suit your convenience. I am hopeful that it could be one night in June. You probably know of The Brook Club and its distinguished membership.

I find it difficult reaching you by phone; therefore, I would appreciate it very much if you would call me. (Office: 212-247-5340; Home:)

You will like The Brook, and I can assure you they will like you.

Sincerely and affectionately,

John J. Bergen

Dear Mr. Williams,

I am sorry that I cannot accept your invitation to be the guest speaker at the Association's Quarterly Luncheon in September. Due to a previous out-of-town engagement very close to this date, my schedule will not permit me to accept. May I suggest that one of my distinguished Deputy Directors speak at your luncheon in lieu of myself.

Thanks again for the invitation.

Yours sincerely,
